From the finest Japanese cuisine to traditional Italian fare and sumptuous seafood buffets, Jupiters Hotel & Casino has something to suit every cupid.

Nothing says that's amore more than Italian food. Treat your special someone this Valentine's Day to a three-course dinner of authentic Italian cuisine and a bottle of Domaine Chandon sparkling wine at Jupiters brand new Italian restaurant Cucina Vivo for $119 per couple. Share an entrée of schiacciata or antipasto del salumiere, choose from individual mains of filetto di manzo or salmone scottato, and complete the meal with a cupoletta degli innamorati dessert to share.

Celebrating the experience of shared dining, cutting-edge Japanese restaurant Kiyomi is the ideal setting for a romantic dinner on February 14. Say I love you with an exquisite nine-course shared dinner for $199 per couple including a bottle of Moët & Chandon champagne. Highlights of the menu include oysters with ponzu and chilli oil; hiramasa kingfish with miso ceviche and crispy potato; Moreton Bay bug with grapefruit sambal mayo and vinegar; and, for those that like to savour the sweet moments, a dessert of tempered dark chocolate, caramelised white chocolate mousse, black sesame ice cream.

Couples will also go head-over-heels for Spinners' 50 Shades of Chocolate for Two including an assortment of decadent Valrhona couverture desserts and two glasses of Domaine Chandon sparkling wine for just $29 per couple.

Food Fantasy is also 'two perfect' this Valentine's Day with their full seafood buffet including a selection of Valentine's Day themed desserts and a chocolate fountain for $57 per person.
