WHAT'S ON AT THE STAR GOLD COAST IN FEBRUARY

Always entertaining, The Star Gold Coast will host a packed calendar of thrilling dining and entertainment experiences in February including romantic Valentine's Day menus, oriental offers for Lunar New Year, and amazing hotel packages.

DINING

Super Bowl LII

Monday February 5, from 9am

NFL fans from across the Gold Coast are expected to converge at The Star for Super Bowl LII when the Philadelphia Eagles take on the New England Patriots.

Catch Super Bowl LII live, large and loud on the LED mega screen. For the best Super Bowl atmosphere on the Coast, join us in the Sports Bar.

Valentine's Day

February 14, 2018

Whether you're a hopeless romantic or a once-a-year Romeo, this Valentine's Day The Star has designed the perfect way to celebrate your love with a range of dining packages guaranteed to sweep your partner off their feet.

Cucina Vivo

Why not celebrate with cuisine from the birth-country of Saint Valentine, with a three-course Italian feast at famed Italian restaurant Cucina Vivo for just $100 per couple. Prawn and ricotta Cappellacci with white peach puree, candied walnut and pickled baby basil is followed by Brasato d'Agnello, a slow roasted Milly Hill lamb shoulder with caramelised onion, baked fennel, vine ripened tomato and cannellini bean ragu and watercress salad. Finishing on a sweet note, the Dolci Della Casa is raspberry mousse, chocolate torte, whipped ganache, chocolate tuille and fresh raspberries.

Garden Kitchen & Bar

Treat your darling to a dining experience at Garden Kitchen & Bar, where the ambience will only be topped by the delicious share menu on offer. Toast to your relationship with a Rose Garden Cocktail or a glass of Moët and then indulge in the menu which includes Mooloolaba spanner crab cakes, oysters, carrot and avocado, and smoked lamb cutlets.

Imperial at The Star

Love will most certainly be in the air with a line-up of Valentine's Day delicacies at Imperial at The Star including pan-fried chicken pot stickers and prawn rainbow spring rolls, Thai style Morten Bay bug with broccoli and noodles, and a chocolate platter for dessert.

Food Fantasy

Iconic buffet Food Fantasy will boast an amazing array of Valentine's Day sweets including a chocolate fountain with strawberry, melon, marshmallow, banana bread and brownies, and a cupcake display.

Lunar New Year

February 16 – March 2, 2018

Immerse yourself in the sights, sounds and tastes of Asia as The Star celebrates Lunar New Year, with special menus and live entertainment across the property from February 16. The Star will come alive as it celebrates the Year of the Dog, with unique dishes starring throughout Imperial at The Star, Mei Wei Dumplings and Food Fantasy.

Imperial at The Star

Featuring the best ingredients, sauces and spices paired with the highest quality local and seasonal produce, Chinese restaurant Imperial at The Star has put together a special lucky menu featuring traditional dishes this Lunar New Year. This includes stir-fried prawns with mild spice sauce, dried scallop and bean sprout thick soup, and mixed fungus and mushrooms with black moss braised with seasonal vegetables. There will also be a special Dim Sum lunch on offer across the period.

Mei Wei Dumplings

Mei Wei Dumplings will also celebrate with traditional Lunar New Year cakes including brown sugar sticky rice cake; daikon cake with turnip, dried shrimp and Chinese sausage; and water chestnut cake.

Food Fantasy

Family favourite Food Fantasy will feature a huge variety of oriental delicacies including Yum Cha, Chinese spiced pork belly with English mustard, Hainan chicken, and steamed or deep fried whole fish with light soy, fresh chilli, shallots and coriander. Special items will also feature on the dessert menu including sago with coconut, mango pudding, egg tartlets, and green tea mousse.

YouYa Live in Concert

Presented by Chinatown Cinema Corp, YouYa Live in Australia will take the stage for a special Lunar New Year performance with special guest Qiu Lin. YouYa was the first Taiwan idol singer, debuting in the 60s with iconic songs like “Almost No Conscience”, “Unforgettable Love”, and “No Sunset”. She began her singing career at the age of sixteen and has quickly become an established singer producing hits and gaining recognition from famous artists. Qiu Lin will join YouYa as a talented singer and performer known for her folk songs and romantic ballads.

Ross Kemp

Tuesday February 6, doors open from 7pm

In a global first, documentary maker, author and actor Ross Kemp will reveal the truth about how the Extreme World works live on stage, delivering remarkable insights into the documentaries he has made across the world. Hear Ross share his personal experiences, both humorous and heart breaking about the heroes and villains and the bravery of ordinary people in extraordinary situations – and the humour that bonds us all together.

His award-winning documentaries examine some of the most extreme situations that exist on our planet today and investigates who we are and why we do the things we do. Through his landmark TV series Extreme World, Ross is a true voice who explains how our world is mapped with conflict, ranging from war to human trafficking, drugs, violence and suffering.

For the first time live ever, Ross will deliver highlights from his back catalogue and his personal story of how an actor carved a new career in a world where there are no scripts. In this no-holds-barred evening, be prepared to laugh, cry and rethink who and what we are. Guests will also have the chance to talk directly to Ross about his experiences and what makes him tick in an audience Q&A.

Gilbert O’Sullivan

Saturday March 10, doors open from 7pm

Gilbert O’Sullivan, one of the biggest Irish songwriters and recording artists to reach international chart success in the 70s and 80s, will be performing live at The Star on Saturday March 10, 2018.

Gilbert O’Sullivan is best known worldwide for his hit singles Alone Again (Naturally), Clair and Get Down – all released in the early 70s and still heard on radio to this day.

“I am so looking forward to the upcoming concerts in Australia. I visited once before some years back for three shows but not with the full band. So while it’s been a long time in the making, I hope for all those that are fans of my music we live up to your expectations, and between us all, we have a great tour. Here's to March 2018!" – Gilbert O'Sullivan

An Evening with Brian Lara

Saturday March 31, doors open from 7pm

Major Events proudly presents a unique opportunity to share an evening with cricket royalty and international sporting icon Brian Lara.

There are very few sportsmen who dominate at every level of their chosen sport; Brian Lara is one of these rare commodities. From humble beginnings, he rose through the ranks to become arguably the greatest batsman of all time, the only man in history to score 100, 200, 300, 400 and 500 in first class cricket.

Lara has excelled across every format of the game, renowned for his incredible mental toughness over his 17-year career, scoring 11,953 runs over 131 Test Matches.

Along the way Lara collected every award available. 12 Man of the Match Awards in Test matches, and an incredible 30 Man of the Match awards in One Day Internationals, Lara has been ranked in the World Number One batsman several times by PWC player rankings. Awarded the Order of Australia medal in 2009, ICC Hall of Fame induction and many more international honours.

Brian Lara is a proud West Indian, sport and tourism ambassador, community leader, and loving father, who is universally respected both on and off the field.
