7. The Star Gold Coast reserves the right to pay the entry fee on behalf of an eligible player.
8. Entries will be restricted to 60 players, unless otherwise increased by The Star Gold Coast
9. Eligible players must abide by the Tournament rules. Failure to do so may result in disqualification from the Tournament.
10. In the event of any dispute, the decision of the Tournament Director is final.
11. A copy of the rules of Tournament poker are available for perusal at the poker desk at The Star Gold Coast and available at <https://www.star.com.au/goldcoast/about-us/partnerships/magic-millions/charity-poker>.

Prize Pool

12. All proceeds from the Tournament will be presented to a charity designated by The Star Gold Coast

Tournament Format

13. The Tournament will be conducted under the Shootout format.
14. Players will play down to a winner on each table. Table winners will then play down to a winner on the Final Table.
15. Prior to the beginning of play, all players will be designated a specific table number and seating position at which to play. This shall be determined by ballot.
16. Seating assignments may be altered to ensure that entrants who are known by the Tournament Director to be connected by family or association play at different tables or are separated on the final table.
17. The number of entrants allocated to a table shall be determined by the Tournament Director and is dependent upon the number of participants in the tournament.
18. All players must provide their name and entry ticket for recording purposes to the table Supervisor upon request.
19. All players will be allocated a table stake of 100,000 non-value Tournament Chips at the commencement of play. Players must not gamble or bet on an outcome of the Tournament for the purpose of winning money or other consideration.
20. Players on the Final table will restart with 100,000 in non-value chips.
21. If a player is eliminated from the tournament prior to the end of a session of play, he or she shall be required to return any remaining tournament chips being held to the dealer, prior to leaving the table and will not receive any money or other consideration in exchange for those chips.
22. At the conclusion of the tournament heat or final, the players shall return all tournament chips which shall be counted by the staff to determine that their number and value is equal to the number and value of tournament chips issued to be used for that tournament heat or final. Players will not receive any money or other consideration in exchange for those chips.
23. If a player is not present at the table at the start of the tournament, then that player shall have their table stake placed in their seat position. If a player has not taken their position by the completion of Level 4 of the Blind Structure, the Tournament Director may declare that the player is "Provisionally Eliminated" and the remainder of that player's stake will be removed from play. If the player arrives later in the day, a calculation is made to determine the number of blinds and antes that would have been taken from their stack and their stake returned to play.
24. If an active player is not present at the table at the start of a round of play, cards will be dealt to their betting position and if that player is required to place a blind bet and/or Ante Bet, appropriate blind bets and/or Ante Bets will be placed from their table stake.
25. If an active player is not present at the table to act on their hand, the Tournament Director:
 - (a) may direct the dealer to deal the cards to the absent player's position as though they are present. Should the player still not be present at the completion of the initial deal the hand shall be folded, with the exception of the player in the last compulsory blind position who will have up until it is their turn to act; and/or
 - (b) may declare the tournament player's position cancelled and the tournament player disqualified. Once disqualified a tournament player will not be entitled to a refund of the entry fee, except on the approval of the Tournament Supervisor and will not be entitled to retain the value of any tournament chips in their possession at the time of disqualification.
26. A player shall not lend or borrow Tournament Chips at any time.

27. Each player is required to display in clear view of other players and table supervisors, all Tournament Chips being held at any one time and those chips must be stacked in denomination. The dealer or supervisor may direct that a player's chips be arranged such that the total value of those chips may be determined. Concealing, pocketing or otherwise hiding chips during tournament play may result in immediate and irrevocable disqualification. No such Tournament player shall be entitled to a refund of entry fee, re-entry, buy-in, re-buy or add-on and will not be entitled to retain the value of any tournament chips in their possession at the time of disqualification.
28. Where an entrant has lost their entire table stake, they will be eliminated and must vacate the tournament table.
29. Once the player make-up for the final table has been determined players will redraw for seating positions.
30. The Tournament Director reserves the right to direct any player who is considered to be unduly delaying the game to expedite their play.
31. The Tournament Director may also call 'time' on a player if deemed necessary.
32. If a player lacks sufficient chips for a blind, the player is still entitled to go all-in with their remaining table stake.
33. All cards will be turned face-up without delay once a player is all-in and all betting action by all other players in the hand is complete.
34. Verbal affirmations as to the content of a player's hand are not binding.
35. An oversized chip wagered without the player calling raise will be deemed to be a call.
36. Where only two players remain in the game, all rules pertaining to the order of wagering and order of play shall be amended to the extent that the designated player will be the first to place the blind and shall be the first to bet or fold in the first betting round.
37. Penalties may be imposed at the Tournament Director's discretion. Penalties available for use shall be verbal warnings, 10, 20, and 30 minutes away from the table and in extreme circumstances, disqualification. A player who is disqualified shall have their chips removed from play.
38. A player who exposes their hand during a round of play will not have their hand folded but may incur a Penalty.
39. Tournament players must not advise or seek advice from another tournament player or person not involved in the tournament during play.
40. Should a player bet, call or raise out-of-turn, (out of turn player), then the player who should have bet, called or raised (missed player) now has their turn. In this case, if the missed player:
 - a) bets less than the out-of-turn player, the out-of-turn player must call by retrieving, from the pot the difference in value of their initial bet and the missed player's bet;
 - (b) raises an out-of-turn player's bet, the out-of-turn player must:
 - call, by supplementing their initial bet with such amount as is the difference in value between their bet and the missed player's bet; or
 - re-raise by supplementing their initial bet with such amount as exceeds the difference between their bet and the missed player's bet; or
 - fold, in which case their initial bet remains in the pot.
 - (c) checks, the out-of-turn player must:
 - check; or

- fold, in which case the initial bet remains in the pot.
- (d) If the out-of-turn player checks out-of-turn and then the Missed player checks, the out-of-turn player must also check or fold.
- (e) If the out-of-turn player calls out-of-turn and then the Missed player calls, the out-of-turn player must also call.
41. It is a player's responsibility to protect their hand at all times. If a dealer mucks an unprotected hand, the player will have no redress and will not be entitled to have any wagered chips returned. An exception would be if a player raised and the raise had not been called yet, the player would be entitled to receive the raise back.
- ## General
20. Directors, management and employees of the Star Entertainment Group of companies (including any related body corporate as defined in the Corporations Act 2001) and their immediate families are not eligible to participate in this Tournament. For the purposes of this clause, 'immediate families' of an employee means the person's spouse and family members residing at the same premises as the employee.
