Jupiters Hotel & Casino offers new and exciting ways to see in 2015

Jupiters Hotel & Casino has come to the party for revellers looking for new and exciting ways to celebrate New Year's Eve on the Gold Coast.

This year, the entertainment hub will come alive with live entertainment, spectacular theming, Jupiters' famous midnight balloon drop in the Atrium foyer, plus a range of new dining and entertainment experiences.

Toast the start of a great New Year's Eve with a visit to Jupiters' Veuve Clicquot Airstream pop-up bar, open from 4pm to 10pm. The pop-up diner has kick-started parties all over the world and, this summer, it's poolside at Jupiters with an island summer vibe, complete with palm trees and Veuve Clicquot long boards.

If you're looking to start your New Year's Eve with a seductive dance spectacular, make sure you grab tickets to the Gold Coast's hottest stage performance – Brazouka. Straight from the streets of Brazil, this mystical dance story will have you dancing in your seat. Plus there's a range of fantastic Dining and Show Packages available.

To celebrate the New Year at one of the Gold Coast's newest restaurants, choose to indulge in a mouth-watering traditional Italian menu at Cucina Vivo, or say sayonara to 2014 at internationally acclaimed Restaurant Executive Chef Chase Kojima's cutting-edge Japanese restaurant and bar Kiyomi.

Zen will offer a special five-course set menu of exquisite authentic Chinese dishes using only the finest Cantonese, Szechuan and Peking flavours and a bottle of Jupiters' selected red or white wine to share between two people.

Jupiters favourites, Food Fantasy and Spinners, are also offering great value New Year's Eve dining packages. Food Fantasy will celebrate with a special buffet of seafood, carvery, hot and cold dishes and their famous dessert selection, while at Spinners diners can savour 'The Spinners Grand Seafood Platter' featuring lobster, Morton Bay bugs, king prawns, oysters and more.

The PA Pub, The Atrium Bar, Quid Bar and J Bar also all guarantee a New Year's Eve full of good times on tap, with free live entertainment and DJs until late.
