1. Definitions

1.1 In these rules, unless the contrary intention appears:

“active player” for a round of play means a player who has not folded;

"all-in" means a player who has invested all of their remaining chips in the outcome of a round of play. An all-in player can only win that portion of the pot or pots to which they have contributed;

"ante" means a predetermined contribution to the pot placed by all players prior to the first card being dealt in a round of play;

“Assistant Gaming Manager” means a person employed in a casino in a managerial capacity relating to the conduct of gaming who is responsible for the operation of a pit;

"bet" means a player's wager, or the action of a player making a wager;

"betting round" means a period of play during which each active player, in order, has the option to check, bet or fold until all wagers have been matched or reached the maximum number of raises;

"blind" means a predetermined contribution to the pot placed by a selected player or players before the first card is dealt. The blind is a live wager, which can win the pot if no further contributions to the pot are made;

“broadcast jackpot amount” means the cash total displayed on the jackpot display as the amount available to be won in the jackpot element of a game;

"burn" means a card which is removed from the top of the deck by the dealer without exposing its value and placed face down, separate from the discards;

“buy-in” means a required amount necessary to enter a game or tournament;

“call” means a wager made in an amount equal to the immediately preceding wager or going all-in for their remaining chips;

“card shoe” means a device from which cards are dealt;

"casino supervisor" means a person employed in a casino in a managerial capacity relating to the conduct of gaming and includes a gaming supervisor/Assistant Gaming Manager;

“check” means to abstain from wagering but continue to stay in contention for the pot by retaining the right to re-enter the betting after all other players have either bet or folded. A check shall only be an option if no blind is placed or bet made;

“commission” means an amount due to the casino operator for hosting the game;

“commission checks” means chips without denomination markings which may be used to pay commission depending on the commission structure in use;

“community card(s)” means a card or cards dealt to the centre of the table, which may be used by all players to complete their best possible hand;

“dead hand” means a hand that is ineligible to win the pot. A hand shall be declared dead if a specified time limit for decision making is exceeded or if cards are thrown in and touch the muck;

“dealer” means a person responsible for the operation of the game;

“deck-checking device” means a machine used to check that each deck of cards contains the correct cards for the game;

“designated player” is the last player to receive cards in the initial deal and is indicated by the use of the dealer button;

“float tray” means a lockable piece of equipment fixed to a gaming table capable of holding gaming chips;

“flop” means three community cards dealt face downward and turned face up simultaneously;

“fold” means a decision by a player to no longer continue with their hand for that particular round of play;

“Gaming Manager” means a person responsible for the supervision of the operation of the gaming floor;

“Gaming Supervisor” means a person responsible for the immediate supervision of the operation of the game;

“hand” means the cards dealt to each player in a round of play;

“hole cards” means a player’s concealed cards;

“in a hand” means once a player has been dealt a legitimate poker hand and has looked at their cards.

“indicate” means a verbal announcement or motion by a player to check, call, bet, raise or fold, all of which are binding;

"inspector" means a person appointed under section 20 of the Gaming and Liquor Administration Act 2007;

"jackpot display" means a screen displaying the progressive amount which can be won as part of a prize pool;

"jackpot event" means a Poker hand (e.g. a Royal Flush, Straight Flush, Four of A Kind, Full House, Flush, High Hand, Bad Beat) that may win a jackpot prize, when being offered. The jackpot prize in this context can be a fixed amount or a percentage of a jackpot pool. Details of the currently "on offer" jackpot events will be displayed on LCD, a noticeboard at the Poker Registration Point in the Poker Room and on a sign at the participating table.

"live cards" means cards that are still active in a round of play and have not been mucked. A player's live cards may be indicated by the placement of that player's hand on top of their cards;

"muck" means the pile of discards;

"pot" means the sum of the antes, blinds and bets wagered;

"promotional prize(s)" means promotional prize/s offered by the casino operator to a patron or patrons of the casino in connection with gaming given by way of a prize draw or element of chance;

"raise" means a bet within the table limits that is an implicit call plus an amount in excess of the previous bet or raise by at least as large an amount, except in the case of an all-in raise;

"rake box" means a box into which the dealer places the commission taken from pots;

"round" means a period of play where the dealer button moves around the table and it has reached a particular player a second time;

"round of play" means the period of play at a table commencing with the dealing of the first card by the dealer and concluding when the dealer announces a result and passes the pot to the winning player;

"side pot(s)" means a separate pot or pots created in a game of poker due to one or more players being all-in;

"single deck shuffler" means a machine used for shuffling one (1) deck of cards in the game of Poker;

"sitting fee" means a set fee charged to a player that will cover the period of time from when the player commences play at a table until the player ceases play and leaves the table in accordance with rule 3.64;

“straddle” means an optional blind bet made by a player after the posting of the compulsory blinds and before cards are dealt. This option is only available on cash games with fixed blind structures. In the case of a structured limit, a straddle will not be counted as a raise.

“string bet” means a bet made in more than one motion without verbally announcing intent and will be managed in accordance with rule 7.10;

“structured limit” means the betting range and structure designated for each game variation;

“substantial action” where two or more players have acted on their hands, including check, bet, call, raise and fold;

“table stake” means the amount of chips a player has on the table and in plain view before the start of any round of play. An active player may only wager up to the amount of chips on the table and may not augment their table stake whilst a round of play is in progress;

2. Table Layout and Equipment

- 2.1 The game of Poker shall be played at a table having up to a maximum of 11 seated players and a place for the dealer.
- 2.2 The layout cloth covering the table shall be marked in a manner substantially similar to that shown in diagram "A", "B", "C", "D" or "E" with the name and/or logo of the casino imprinted thereon.
- 2.3 The following equipment shall also be used:
  - 2.3.1 a card shoe capable of holding a single deck of cards;
  - 2.3.2 a dealer button which is used to denote the designated player. The button is moved one position in a clockwise rotation at the conclusion of each round of play and held by the last person to receive cards in the initial deal;
  - 2.3.3 a float tray;
- 2.4 A single deck shuffler may be used.
- 2.5 A commission box may also be attached to the table and used to temporarily hold the commission collected during gaming.

3. Table Charge/Commission

- 3.1 The casino operator shall levy a fee at each poker table in the form of a commission. This commission may be either a percentage of the pot, a fee per hand, or a time charge on each player participating in the game or any combination of the above.
- 3.2 The casino operator shall display a sign, in each part of the casino where Poker is played, detailing the type of commission to be utilised and any minimum and/or maximum, if applicable, amount of commission in dollar terms for each game in play.
- 3.3 The casino operator shall use one or more of the following methods in determining and collecting the commission:
  - 3.3.1 A percentage commission collected from the pot and any side pots, pursuant to which;
    - 3.3.1.1 the amount to be collected shall be calculated and collected from the total pot or pots by the dealer after the conclusion of a betting round.
    - 3.3.1.2 In games where the only wagers are blind bets no percentage commission shall be collected.
    - 3.3.1.3 Where two or more players hold hands of equal value at the showdown and have wagered and contested for the pot for the duration of the round of play and no other players have contributed to the pot, no percentage commission will be collected from the pot.
  - 3.3.2 A fee per hand dealt, pursuant to which;
    - 3.3.2.1 commission shall be calculated on a "per-hand" basis.
  - 3.3.3 A fee based on time charges pursuant to which;
    - 3.3.3.1 commission shall be calculated on a "per-player" basis or on a "per-table per-hour" basis which may be imposed on a "per-player" basis; and
    - 3.3.3.2 where the commission is imposed on a "per-player" basis, players will be charged in advance, on the hour every hour, from the time the game commences. Players wishing to join the table after the 'on the hour fee' has been paid, but prior to the next hourly time period becoming payable, will be charged a proportion of the hourly time charge calculated in 15 minute increments; and

- 3.3.3.3 Players who have paid their fee for the hour and are directed to move by a casino supervisor will not have to pay again until the next hourly time charge period; and
  - 3.3.3.4 no refunds will be given to players who leave the game prior to the completion of the hour;
  - 3.3.3.5 commission shall be assessed and imposed on inactive players; and
  - 3.3.3.6 a sitting fee may be collected per player on a “per-player” basis and each player will be charged once when initially taking a seat at a table. This sitting fee will cover the period of time played until the player leaves the table, and ends their playing session. The amount required as a sitting fee shall be displayed at a sign on the table.
- 3.4 A casino supervisor may vary the method and amount of commission to be charged for a game prior to the commencement of a round of play, provided;
  - 3.4.1 prior notice of at least three rounds of play has been given. In the event that all players are in agreement, changes may be made without prior notice; and
  - 3.4.2 changes shall only be made at the completion of a round of play; and
  - 3.4.3 the signage is changed to show the applicable commission.
- 3.5 A casino supervisor may vary the method and amount of commission to be charged for a game so that nil commission is collected.
- 3.6 For the purpose of calculating a percentage commission, an uncalled wager shall not form part of the pot.
- 3.7 Where commission checks are used, each set of commission checks shall bear the same distinguishing emblem or mark to differentiate them from colour checks of other sets in use at other non-Poker tables. Each set shall be subdivided into various colours and each colour shall be assigned the same value at any one time.
- 3.8 Commission checks issued at a Poker table shall only be used for gaming at a Poker table and shall not be used for gaming at any other table in the casino.
- 3.9 Commission checks shall only be presented for redemption at a Poker table and shall not be redeemed or exchanged at any other location in the casino unless that table is closed at the time of the redemption request.

- 3.10 Where a player purchases commission checks, the specific value to be assigned to each shall be ascertained by the casino supervisor, depending on the commission structure in use, prior to play commencing. The value of the commission checks will be equal to the applicable fee per hand, as displayed on the sign in the Poker area.

4. The Cards

- 4.1 The game of Poker shall be played with either:
- 4.1.1 a full deck of cards, having 52 cards without jokers, with backs of the same colour and design; or
  - 4.1.2 a 32-card deck, consisting of Ace, King, Queen Jack, 10, 9, 8 and 7, with backs of the same colour and design; or
  - 4.1.3 a 36-card deck, consisting of Ace, King, Queen, Jack, 10, 9, 8, 7 and 6, with backs of the same colour and design.
- 4.2 Cards shall be checked by a dealer or a casino supervisor or by use of a deck-checking device prior to use on a gaming table.
- 4.3 Cards may be checked and shall be secured until such time as they may be required.
- 4.4 Cards may, at the discretion of a casino supervisor, be changed after any round of play if, for any reason, a card or cards become unfit for further use. If all the cards are replaced, the new cards shall be checked, shuffled and cut in accordance with these rules.
- 4.5 All cards used in the game of Poker shall be dealt from a card shoe specifically designed for such purpose.
- 4.6 When handling the cards, players shall at all times ensure that the cards remain on or above the playing area of the table. The cards shall not be removed from the table.
- 4.7 A casino supervisor may inspect a player's hand at the completion of a round of play.
- 4.8 A casino supervisor or an inspector may, at any time, instruct the dealer to check and verify the number of cards.

5. The Shuffle and Cut

- 5.1 The cards shall be shuffled so that they are randomly intermixed within the deck:
- 5.1.1 immediately prior to the start of play;

5.1.2 at the completion of each round of play; or

5.1.3 immediately prior to the recommencement of play following any period that the table has been vacant.

5.2 When a single deck shuffler is in use at a table:

5.2.1 the single deck shuffler may be loaded with one deck of cards while another deck is used in play; and

5.2.2 the backs of the deck of cards being used in play must be of a different colour to that of the backs of the other deck of cards in the single deck shuffler; and

5.2.3 the dealer may perform a manual shuffle prior to inserting the cards into the single deck shuffler.

5.3 After the cards have been shuffled, the dealer shall cut the cards and place them on a cutting card and then insert all the cards in the card shoe for the commencement of play.

5.4 No person other than the dealer shall cut the cards.

6. Number of Players and Seating Positions

6.1 The maximum number of seated patrons may be one more than the number of players dealt during a round of play. The maximum number of players dealt during a round of play, in a poker game shall be:

6.1.1 a 52 card game:

- (i) Draw Poker – eight
- (ii) Five Card Stud – ten
- (iii) Seven Card Stud – eight
- (iv) Hold'em – ten
- (v) Omaha – ten
- (vi) Pineapple Poker – ten
- (vii) Crazy Pineapple Poker – ten

6.1.2 a 32 card game:

- (i) Draw Poker – five

- (ii) Five Card Stud – six
- (iii) Seven Card Stud – four
- (iv) Two Card Manila – eleven
- (v) Three Card Manila – eight
- (vi) Hold'em – ten

6.1.3 a 36 card game:

- (i) Two Card Manila – eleven
- (ii) Three Card Manila – eight
- (iii) Hold'em – Ten

6.2 If at the commencement of play, two or more persons wish to sit at a particular position at the table, the seating position must be decided by a draw of cards to the relevant players. The dealer will draw one card to each player in an anticlockwise direction from the dealer's button and the highest drawn card shall win the position, an ace will always rank highest. Where two cards of the same face value are drawn then a further draw of the cards shall be conducted.

6.3 If a position becomes vacant during play, the order of priority for filling the position shall be:

- (i) A player who has been taking part in the game at the table;
- (ii) Where there is no player taking part in the game at the table, a player from another table at which the same game and limits has been conducted;
- (iii) Where there is no player taking part in another game, a player who is on the waiting list, in order.

6.4 If there are two or more persons having the same priority to fill the vacant position, the seating position must be decided by a draw of cards to the relevant players. The dealer will draw one card to each player in an anticlockwise direction from the dealer's button and the highest drawn card shall win the position, an ace will always rank highest. Where two cards of the same face value are drawn then a further draw of the cards shall be conducted.

7. Wagers

- 7.1 All wagers shall be placed by means of chips.
- 7.2 Prior to the first card being dealt in each round of play, each player wishing to participate in the round of play shall place an ante/blind, depending on the variation in play, directly in front of them, which shall go to form the pot.
- 7.3 After each card has been dealt, players may pick up their cards and at the completion of dealing bet or fold in order; with exception of the player in the position of the last compulsory blind who may have the option to check, raise or fold.
- 7.4 Players shall indicate their decision to check, bet, call, raise or fold either by verbally announcing their intention or as follows:
  - 7.4.1 Check, by knocking or tapping on the table; or
  - 7.4.2 Bet, by placing the required amount as specified by the table minimum; or
  - 7.4.3 Call, by placing the required amount in chips on the table directly in front of them.
    - 7.4.3.1 In all games, if a player makes a bet of less than the amount required to call, he/she will have the option to:
      - 7.4.3.2 make up the difference to remain in the round of play; or
      - 7.4.3.3 go all-in if their table stake is less than the amount to call to remain in the round of play; or
  - 7.4.4 Raise, by placing the required amount in chips to call plus an additional amount in chips to raise on the table in front of them; or
  - 7.4.5 Fold, by passing their cards face down to the dealer.
- 7.5 Where there are two or more indications the first action will be binding. Subject to rule 24.4 once a player has made a wager it may not be withdrawn or altered; except where necessary to ensure compliance with the rules of the game.
- 7.6 Except as provided in these rules or until a decision has been made in respect of any wager, no wager may be handled, placed, increased or withdrawn after the first card of the round of play has been removed from the card shoe.
- 7.7 In all games if a player makes a raise of 50% or more of the previous wager without verbally announcing their intent, they will be required to make the raise up to the minimum raise permitted. In all games if a player makes a raise of less than 50% of the previous wager or raise without verbally announcing their intent, it shall be considered a call.

- 7.8 A player who bets unannounced with two chips of the same denomination totalling more than the amount to call and less than the minimum amount to raise (and one chip value is less than the previous bet), shall be considered a call. In this instance rule 7.6 does not apply.
- 7.9 A single chip of greater value than the bet that is not verbally announced as a raise shall be considered a call.
- 7.10 String bets are not permitted. Players shall either declare their intention verbally or wager the proper amount of chips in one motion.
- 7.11 A player shall not wager on more than one hand in any round of play.
- 7.12 All games may be scheduled with a predetermined amount of time for the players to act which, if applicable, shall be indicated on a sign at the table and administered by the dealer. If a player has not acted before this time, his/her hand shall either be declared a dead hand or will be declared a check if the player would have been eligible to check for that betting round.
  - 7.12.1 Where the time to act is in operation, the minimum time must be at least 20 seconds.
  - 7.12.2 Where time to act is in operation, players may be permitted to extend their time to act by purchasing additional time.
  - 7.12.3 The amount shall be divided between the house and the pot. Should the division of the extra time payment result in non-full dollar amounts (i.e. 50¢, $1.50) the division of the fee is to be adjusted in favour of the patron to enable a full dollar split.
  - 7.12.4 A player can only request additional time twice per betting round.
  - 7.12.5 Where time to act is in operation, a countdown timer will be in use and be made visible to all the players. Player(s) will be notified prior to five (5) seconds of the completion of the countdown.
  - 7.12.6 Where time to act is in operation, a sign at the table shall display the initial time limit, the charge and, the additional time allowed.
- 7.13

8. Minimum Wagers, Maximum Wagers and Betting Structures

- 8.1 The type of game, minimum and maximum initial table stake, betting limits and structure, including the number of compulsory blinds if applicable, shall be displayed on a sign in each part of the casino where Poker is played.

8.2 Players are responsible for ensuring that their wagers comply with the betting limits and structure stated on the sign.

8.2.1 In all games if it is noticed that a player's initial table stake or augmentation of their table stake does not comply with the minimum/maximums of the game the following shall apply:

8.2.1.1 If a player's initial table stake is below the stated minimum or above the stated maximum and is noticed prior to substantial action notwithstanding Rule 8.7, the player shall augment their table stake to comply with the minimum and/or maximum of the game.

8.2.1.2 If a player's initial table stake is below the stated minimum and is noticed after substantial action the player shall continue with the remainder of the table stake until the completion of the round of play. If after the completion of the round of play the player's table stake is still below the required minimum they must comply with the minimum required buy-in to play before they can continue. If their table stake complies or is more than stated minimum the player shall continue with all chips remaining.

8.2.1.3 If a player's table stake is in excess of the stated maximum and is noticed after substantial action the player, notwithstanding rule 8.7 must reduce the table stake to the maximum allowable for that game immediately. Any calls/wagers that have been made that are in excess of the stated maximum table stake will be returned to participating players in the pot. If a player is all-in he/she can only win the maximum amount allowable.

8.2.1.4 In the event that a player has been found to have wagered with amounts above or below the stated minimums/ maximums on the completion of a round of play or on any previous round(s) of play, the wagers and results of the previous round(s) of play shall stand.

8.3 The game, minimum and maximum initial table stake, betting limit and structure may be changed at the discretion of the casino supervisor provided;

8.3.1 prior notice of at least three rounds of play have been given to players. In the event that all players are in agreement, changes may be made without prior notice; and

- 8.3.2 changes shall only be made at the completion of a round of play; and
- 8.3.3 subject to this rule, the minimum wager may only be changed to a higher minimum if a sign indicating the new minimum and proposed time of change has been displayed at the table at least 20 minutes before the change.
- 8.4 On commencement of play each player shall place on the table, in full view of the dealer and all players, at least the minimum table stake required in either chips or cash, which shall be converted by the dealer to chips.
- 8.5 A player who is directed by a casino supervisor to move from a broken game to a game of the same limit may continue to play with their existing table stake, even if it is less than the minimum table stake. A player switching games voluntarily must have the proper initial table stake for the new game.
- 8.6 Chips or money shall not be borrowed or lent by players during a round of play.
- 8.7 An active player shall not augment or reduce their table stake during any round of play. A player not in a round of play may augment their stake but shall not remove chips from the table; except for the purchase of goods and services from a casino employee.
  - 8.7.1 With prior approval of the Poker Manager, a Gaming Manager or above, chips may be removed from the table for purposes other than those defined in rule 8.7.
- 8.8 The rules for minimum and maximum wagers are as follows:
  - 8.8.1 Where a blind bet is required, all compulsory blind bets shall be indicated on the table limit sign. The last blind bet shall be at least equal to the table minimum of the first betting round.
  - 8.8.2 In the game of Draw Poker (blind) should a voluntary blind bet be placed, it shall double the value of the last blind bet placed;
  - 8.8.3 Should a player be absent and miss their turn to place the blind bet(s) they shall have the following options:
    - 8.8.3.1 place the equivalent value of the blind bet(s) missed into the pot for the current round of play; or
    - 8.8.3.2 be dealt out of all subsequent rounds of play until it is their turn to place the blind bet again.
  - 8.8.4 Players at a table utilising blinds may move into empty seats; however, if the seat change is more than two live player seats clockwise from their original position, the player must wait until the blinds are due, or place one required blind bet equivalent to the table minimum for the round of play to receive a hand immediately.

8.8.5 A new player to the table shall have the following options:

8.8.5.1 place one required blind bet equivalent to the table minimum for the round of play; or

8.8.5.2 be dealt out of all subsequent rounds of play until it is their turn to place the blind bet again.

8.8.6 A raise shall be within the table limits and shall not be less than any previous bet or raise in that round, except in the event of a player going all-in;

8.8.7 Where a betting limit is specified in terms of a ratio to the pot (i.e. half pot or full pot) and a player wishes to raise, the amount required for a player to call shall be included in the pot before the betting limit is calculated;

8.8.8 In all games where the betting limit is expressed in terms of a ratio to the pot, or specified no limit, there shall be no limit to the number of raises permitted;

8.8.9 In cases where there is a structured limit there shall be a limit of three raises in a betting round, unless there remains only two active players in the final betting round, in which case there shall be no limit to the number of raises.

8.9 In a game of poker, straddle wagers may be permitted. The first active player to the left of the last compulsory blind bet may place a wager double the last compulsory blind, this wager is known as a "Straddle".

8.9.1 A player who places a straddle will be entitled to act last in the first betting round only. A straddle bet will have no effect on the structure of the game. For the purposes of limiting the number of raises in a round, a straddle will not be counted as a raise.

8.9.2 Where straddle wagers are permitted this option shall be indicated on the table limit sign.

8.10 Subject to approval of a Gaming Manager and players receiving prior advice and consenting to the conditions of play, the game may be conducted under conditions known as Freeze Out as follows:

8.10.1 each player shall buy in for an identical amount;

8.10.2 a player shall not add or remove any chips from their table stake after the game has commenced;

- 8.10.3 a player shall not join the game after play has commenced;
  - 8.10.4 a player shall not leave the game unless his table stake is exhausted or there are reasonable grounds in the opinion of the casino supervisor for that player being unable to continue;
  - 8.10.5 each time a player is eliminated the amount of any blind bet shall increase by the amount of the original minimum wager; and
  - 8.10.6 play shall continue until only one player is left in the game. That player shall be the winner.
- 8.11 For the purposes of rule 8.10 “game” shall mean the condition of Freeze Out which shall commence with the first card dealt and concluding with the determination of the winning player.

9. Order of Play/Deal

- 9.1 The player seated to the immediate right of the dealer receives the dealer button for the first round of play.
- 9.2 The dealer button shall be passed in a clockwise direction around the table at the conclusion of each round of play.
- 9.3 The person holding the dealer button becomes known as the designated player and shall receive the last card in the initial deal.
  - 9.3.1 Where the number of seated patrons exceeds the number of allowable players in a poker game, the dealer will not deal cards to the designated player. In this instance, the player to the immediate right of the designated player will be the last to receive cards.
- 9.4 The player to the immediate left of the designated player will be the first to place an ante/blind and receive the cards.
- 9.5 Prior to the first card being dealt, all players shall be required to place an ante/blind in accordance with the rules for the particular version of Poker in play.
- 9.6 A player may not decline to place any compulsory blinds.
- 9.7 Cards shall be dealt to each player, in a clockwise direction, commencing with the player on the immediate left of the designated player and in accordance with the rules for the particular version of Poker in play.
- 9.8 Where only two players remain in the game, all rules pertaining to the order of wagering, and order of play shall be amended to the extent that the designated player will be the first to place the blind and shall be the first to check, bet or fold in the first betting round.

10. Betting Round

- 10.1 At the start of each betting round, subject to rule 11.1, the players in order shall verbally announce and/or indicate their intention to check, bet or fold.
- 10.2 A player who elects to bet shall place a wager in accordance with rule 7.
- 10.3 A player who elects to fold shall verbally announce 'fold' or pass their cards facedown towards the dealer who shall collect them. The dealer shall then verbally announce the player's decision to fold. Cards will be live until mucked.
- 10.4 Once a player has folded and their hand has been mucked the hand cannot be returned to play.
- 10.5 Players should protect their live cards by keeping them face down on the table surface and placing their hand on top of their cards.
- 10.6 The dealer shall collect any monies due to the pot, placing it in the centre of the table, and the cards from each player who elects to fold. The cards shall be individually spread out face downwards by the dealer, counted and then placed in the discard pile.

11. Checking

- 11.1 Checking is not permitted in the first betting round.
- 11.2 The first player who may check in subsequent betting round is the first active player to the left of the designated player.
- 11.3 If a player checks, the next active player may also check.
- 11.4 No player may check once a bet has been made in a betting round.
- 11.5 Checking is not permitted in the game of Draw Poker.
- 11.6 Players shall indicate their decision to check verbally or by knocking or tapping the table. The dealer shall then verbally announce the players' decision.

12. All-In

- 12.1 A player who does not have a table stake of sufficient value to meet a wager and who wishes to stay in the hand must wager the remaining amount of their table stake. They remain in the hand as an active player, taking no further part in any subsequent betting round(s).
- 12.2 When a player goes all-in for less than the amount required to constitute a bet, all subsequent players must call to any previous amount wagered in the betting round or to the structured limit or call and raise to the structured limit and if necessary start a separate (side) pot.

- 12.3 If an all-in player is opening the betting and the amount wagered is less than the amount required to constitute a bet, all subsequent players shall be permitted to call for the amount wagered or raise to the structured limit and if necessary start a separate (side) pot.
- 12.4 When an all-in player's wager is in excess of the amount required to call but is less than the amount required to constitute a raise, this excess amount shall not be considered a raise. All subsequent players shall call to the all-in amount or call and raise to the structured limit.
- 12.5 Amounts bet by players that are more than the player who has gone all-in are then combined in a separate (side) pot.
- 12.6 An all-in player is only eligible to win the pot or pots they have contributed to.
- 12.7 An all-in player who has been called shall be required to expose their cards after the final betting round is completed.

- 25.7 In the event of a misdeal all bets shall be void, all antes/blinds and all wagers shall be returned to players.
- 25.8 Whenever a misdeal occurs there shall be a new shuffle and cut in accordance with rule 5. The same player(s) shall be required to place their compulsory blinds and the first to receive cards in the new deal.
- 25.9 Only a dealer or casino supervisor shall determine if there is a misdeal.

26. Irregularities

- 26.1 A card found face up in the shoe shall be immediately placed in the discards and shall not be used in the round of play. Play will continue with the remaining cards in the shoe.
- 26.2 If a card(s) is dropped and/or exposed by a player this card or these cards shall still be played. A count will then be performed at the end of the round of play.
- 26.3 If a player shows another player his/her card(s), upon request by the dealer or another player, he/she shall be required to show the entire table the same card(s) at the completion of the round of play.
- 26.4 Where a player is directed in error by a dealer to act out of turn that player or any following players who act in those circumstances shall retract their action and shall then act in the correct sequence.
- 26.5 Subject to rule 24.4 where a player attempts to wager out of turn and:
- 26.5.1 if the player(s) who should have wagered, before the out of turn player, checks then the out of turn player shall check;
  - 26.5.2 if any player(s) who should have wagered before the out of turn player, makes a wager smaller than or equal to the wager indicated by the player attempting to wager out of turn, then the player who attempted to wager out of turn may call or fold but is not permitted to raise. If the player who wagered out of turn elects to fold then the out of turn wager will stand and remain in the pot;

26.5.3 if any player(s) who should have wagered, before the out of turn player, makes a wager in excess of the wager indicated by the player attempting to wager out of turn, then the player who attempted to wager out of turn may call, call and raise or fold. If the player who wagered out of turn elects to fold then the out of turn wager will stand and remain in the pot;

26.5.4 if any player(s) who should have wagered decides to fold, before the out of turn player, then the out of turn wager shall stand.

26.6 In the event that a card(s) is found to be missing; or a card(s) is found that does not form part of the cards that make up a deck in accordance with rule 4.1, the following shall apply:

26.6.1 the result of any rounds of play previously completed shall stand; and

26.6.2 the round of play where the missing card(s) is discovered or the foreign card(s) is found shall be declared a misdeal and all monies returned to players for that round of play; and

26.6.3 the deck shall be checked for any further missing or foreign cards; and

26.6.4 Surveillance and an Inspector shall be notified.

26.7 It is the player's responsibility to protect their hand at all times. Failure to do so will mean the player will have no redress if the dealer accidentally mucks their cards.

26.8 Except as expressly permitted by these rules, players may not exchange cards, nor exchange, communicate, nor cause to be exchanged or communicated any information regarding their respective hands.

26.9 A player, including an inactive player, shall not look at the discards either before or after the winning hand(s) has been determined.

26.10 A player shall not look at the undealt cards at any time.

26.11 At any time while a game is in progress a casino supervisor may direct that:

26.11.1 only English be spoken by the players at the table;

- 26.11.2 there be silence, except for a player declaring their intention, while a hand is in progress;
- 26.11.3 players suspected of collusion not play at the same table;
- 26.11.4 any spectators to leave the area.
- 26.12 A casino supervisor may impose a time restriction on any player deemed to be taking too long to make a decision. On being advised by the casino supervisor that the time limit is being imposed the player shall then be given 40 seconds to make and act on their decision. Notwithstanding rule 7.12, a player who fails to make and act on their decision within the 40 second time limit will be required to fold their hand.
- 26.13 If a player wants to contest a pot, they must do so immediately. The right to claim a pot from a round of play ends when the next new round of play begins or if it is the final hand of a table that is closing, the closure of that table. A round of play begins when the first card is drawn from the card shoe. The results for all previous rounds of play shall stand.
- 26.14 Where an error has occurred that is not covered by rule 26, a casino supervisor may declare the hand void and all monies returned for that round of play.
- 26.15 In Draw Poker if cards are dealt out of sequence during the draw and the wrong player has looked at them, then they shall retain those cards. The next cards shall then be dealt to the player who should have received the cards dealt out of sequence and thereafter cards shall be dealt to all players in sequence.
- 26.16 Notwithstanding rule 25.3, in Five Card Stud if the first card is dealt face up the second card shall be dealt face down.
- 26.17 In Five Card Stud an all-in player in the first betting round shall not be considered an active player for the purpose of opening the betting. For all subsequent rounds, if an all-in player is the player required to open the betting then the action shall pass to the player to the immediate left of the all-in player.
- 26.18 In Five Card Stud if any card is exposed by the dealer prior to the completion of a betting round, the card(s) shall be taken back and set aside. The betting round shall be completed, and the card(s) set aside reshuffled with the remainder of the deck. The dealer shall cut and continue dealing.
- 26.19 Notwithstanding rule 25.4, in Seven Card Stud if one of the first two cards is dealt face up the third card shall be dealt face down.

- 26.20 In Seven Card Stud an all-in player in the first betting round shall not be considered an active player for the purpose of opening the betting. For all subsequent rounds, if an all-in player is the player required to open the betting then the action shall pass to the player to the immediate left of the all-in player.
- 26.21 In Seven Card Stud if the dealer commences dealing the final round of cards and subsequently realises there are insufficient cards to complete the deal, the dealer shall retrieve the final round cards and shall shuffle these with remaining cards and deal a community card face up.
- 26.22 In Seven Card Stud if any card is exposed by the dealer prior to the completion of a betting round, the card(s) shall be taken back and set aside. The betting round shall be completed, and the card(s) set aside reshuffled with the remainder of the deck. The dealer shall cut and continue dealing.
- 26.23 In Seven Card Stud if the seventh card is dealt face up or exposed by the dealer while being dealt, if it is the first card to be dealt for that round, then all final cards shall be dealt face up and the opener shall be the opener from the previous round. If the exposed card or cards is not the first card dealt, then the player or players receiving an exposed card shall have the option of being treated as an all-in player. The dealer shall request the affected player to determine how they shall be treated before substantial action occurs. If substantial action has occurred, then the affected player shall be treated as an all-in player for the remainder of the hand.
- 26.24 In all Manila games if any card is exposed by the dealer prior to the completion of a betting round, the maximum bet allowed for that betting round shall not exceed the maximum amount already wagered for that betting round. If no bet(s) have been placed the next bet(s) in the betting round shall not exceed the table minimum. The exposed card shall then be used in the normal sequence.
- 26.25 In all Manila games if the dealer exposes two or more cards simultaneously when dealing a community card, and it is possible to reconstruct, the correct card shall remain in play. If the dealer is unable to reconstruct and/or any further community cards are required, the exposed card(s) shall be taken back by the dealer and shuffled with the remainder of the deck. The dealer shall cut and continue dealing.
- 26.26 In all flop games if one of the face down cards is exposed by the dealer while dealing, the dealer shall complete the deal and then replace the exposed card with the card that was to be the first burn card and the exposed card becomes the first burn card.
- 26.27 In all flop games if the dealer neglects to burn a card prior to dealing the flop, and it is unable to be reconstructed and there has been no substantial action it shall be taken back by the dealer and shuffled with the remainder of the deck. The dealer shall cut and continue dealing. If substantial action has occurred the flop stands.

- 26.28 In all flop games if the dealer neglects to burn a card after the flop has been dealt but prior to dealing further community cards, and the dealer is unable to reconstruct the cards or substantial action has occurred, the community cards as dealt will stand.
- 26.29 In all flop games if the flop has too many cards dealt, and it is unable to be reconstructed, it shall be taken back by the dealer, together with the burn card and shuffled with the remainder of the deck. The dealer shall cut and continue dealing.
- 26.30 In all flop games if the flop is dealt and turned face up prior to the completion of the betting round, it shall be taken back by the dealer, together with the burn card and shuffled with the remainder of the deck. The betting round shall be completed, and the dealer shall cut, and continue dealing.
- 26.31 In all flop games if the fourth community card is exposed by the dealer prior to the completion of the second betting round;
- i. That card will be taken back and set aside, the burn card shall remain, and the second betting round completed.
  - ii. The dealer will burn a card, turn over a new fourth community card and complete the betting round.
  - iii. The card that was set aside will then be reshuffled with the remainder of the deck and a fifth community card turned without burning a card.
- 26.32 If the fifth community card is exposed by the dealer prior to the completion of the third betting round that card will be taken back by the dealer and reshuffled with the remainder of the deck. The burn card will remain; the third betting round will be completed, and a new card dealt.
- 26.33 In all flop games if the dealer exposes two cards simultaneously when dealing a community card and the hand can be reconstructed the correct card shall remain in play. If no further cards are to be dealt, the exposed cards shall be placed in the discard pile, or if further cards are to be dealt, the incorrect exposed card shall become the next burn card. If the hand is unable to be reconstructed the exposed cards shall be taken back by the dealer and shuffled with the remainder of the deck. The dealer shall cut the cards and continue dealing.
- 26.34 In all flop games if the dealer exposes more than two cards simultaneously when dealing a community card and the hand can be reconstructed, only the correct card for that betting round shall remain in play. If no further cards are to be dealt the exposed cards shall be placed in the discard pile, or if further cards are to be dealt, the incorrect exposed cards shall be taken back by the dealer and shuffled with the remainder of the deck. The dealer shall cut and continue dealing. If the hand is unable to be reconstructed the exposed cards shall be taken back by the dealer and shuffled with the remainder of the deck. The dealer shall cut the cards and continue dealing.

- 26.1 In all Pineapple games, the betting round in which players are required to discard will be deemed incomplete until all cards have been discarded.
- 26.1.1 If a player has failed to discard at the required time and substantial action has occurred in the next or subsequent betting rounds, as soon as the dealer realises the player has the incorrect number of cards, they shall declare the player's hand dead, and muck the cards;
- 26.1.2 If a player has failed to discard at the required time and substantial action has not occurred, they shall be required to discard prior to the next round commencing;
- 26.1.3 If a player has failed to discard at the required time and this is noticed prior to substantial action and the community cards for that betting round have been dealt, the community cards will be brought back and shuffled with the remainder of the deck. The player will discard the required card, and the dealer will cut the cards and continue dealing.

28.6.1 Each Heads Up round will consist of a possible three matches, the winner of the round will be the first player to win two matches against his/her opponent utilising the 'best of three' method to determine which player advances to the next round. A "Heads Up" round will be completed when a player wins two matches. Each player in a match will commence the next "Heads Up" round with an equal amount of chips.

28.6.2 A tournament table number will be displayed on each side of the divider. This is a separate number to the actual table.

28.6.3 Cards with different coloured backs shall be used on either side of the divider when a Heads-up tournament is being conducted.

28.7 Wagers

28.7.1 All wagers will be made with tournament chips.

28.7.2 Prior to the start of any session, each tournament player will receive an equivalent allotment of tournament chips at the table.

28.7.3 Any tournament player who cannot provide the prescribed buy-in prior to the commencement of the tournament shall be eliminated and the entry fee will not be refunded.

- 28.7.4 Subject to rule 12 or unless these rules state otherwise, a tournament player must participate in each round of play, and where applicable, contribute all compulsory antes, blinds and/or minimum wagers to the pot. A player who fails to contribute such compulsory antes, blinds and/or minimum wagers shall be disqualified.
- 28.7.5 Tournament players will be disqualified if they increase, or attempt to increase their table stake by any other means than is permitted in these rules. No such tournament player shall be entitled to a refund of entry fee, buy-in, re-buy or add-on and will not be entitled to retain the value of any tournament chips in their possession at the time of disqualification.
- 28.7.6 Tournament players may not remove their tournament chips from the table, unless instructed by the Tournament Supervisor for the purpose of balancing and breaking of the tournament tables. All chips must remain in full view of tournament players and staff whilst play is in progress. Tournament players must not exchange chips with other tournament players for any reason.
- 28.7.7 The Tournament Supervisor shall disqualify any tournament player found to be deliberately concealing, pocketing or otherwise hiding chips during tournament play. No such tournament player shall be entitled to a refund of entry fee, buy-in, re-buy or add-on and will not be entitled to retain the value of any tournament chips in their possession at the time of disqualification.
- 28.7.8 Subject to reasonable notice, the Tournament Supervisor may limit the time period within which individual wagers must be made.
- 28.7.9 Where a tournament player does not place a wager within the allotted time, the tournament player's hand may be folded.
- 28.7.10 Any tournament player who no longer possesses any tournament chips and who is not entitled to a re-buy will be eliminated and must vacate the table.
- 28.7.11 The minimum and maximum wager may be increased/decreased during the tournament providing tournament players have been notified of the condition prior to the commencement of the tournament.

28.8 Session winners/placegetters

- 28.8.1 The number of tournament players to advance to the next session will be determined at the start of the tournament.

- 28.8.2 The method(s) for determining the number(s) of tournament players to advance to the next session will be determined at the start of the tournament and be included in the terms and conditions.
- 28.8.3 Where two or more all-in players who would have been eligible for place in the tournament, are eliminated in the same round of play, the winner/place getter shall be the player who had the higher table stake before the round of play in which they were eliminated commenced. If players had the same value table stake at the commencement of the round of play then a draw of cards shall determine the winner or place getter. Commencing with the player on the immediate left of the designated player and in a clockwise direction, the dealer shall deal one card face down to each player. Players shall turn their cards face up and the player holding the highest card shall be declared the winner. Should two or more players hold an equal value card, further card(s) shall be dealt to those players until a winner is decided. Ace shall be counted as high.
- 28.8.4 As each session progresses and players are eliminated, the Tournament Supervisor will record the order of elimination and announce the placegetters and/or winners.

28.9 General provisions

- 28.9.1 Tournament players may not advise or seek advice from other tournament players or persons not involved in the tournament during play.
- 28.9.2 In the event of a dispute relating to the rules or conditions of entry, the decision of the Tournament Supervisor will be final and the game will not proceed until the dispute is settled.
- 28.9.3 At the Tournament Supervisor discretion, a count of all tournament player's chips may be conducted.
- 28.9.4 A tournament player may be disqualified if found to contravene any of these rules. No such tournament player shall be entitled to a refund of entry, buy-in, re-buy or add-on and will not be entitled to retain the value of any tournament chips in their possession at the time of disqualification.
- 28.9.5 Tournament chips in the possession of a tournament player at the conclusion of each session shall remain the property of the casino operator and be returned to the casino operator at the end of the session for which they were used.

28.9.6 At the conclusion of each session, dealers and/or casino supervisors are to ensure that all tournament chips have been returned. If a situation arises where tournament chips have not been returned, the Tournament Supervisor is to be advised and the quantity and denomination recorded.

28.9.7 Entry fees, buy-ins, re-buys, add-ons and prizes paid in a tournament pursuant to these Rules shall not form part of the calculation of Gross Gaming Revenue.
