The Star Sydney sets a new standard for business luxury at The Executive Lounge

The Star Sydney last night launched the latest addition to its luxury accommodation and business facilities – The Executive Lounge. Located on Level 5 of the newly refurbished Astral Tower, the exquisitely appointed lounge, boardroom and bar – sets a new standard for local and international business and leisure travellers.

The Executive Lounge combines contemporary and lavish interiors, award-winning culinary delights and five-star personalised service to provide the ultimate location for executives to meet, work and relax.

The palatial space is a premier location for business meetings, with an adjacent boardroom to accommodate up to twelve guests featuring a 65-inch TV with ClickShare capability, complimentary Wi-Fi and office admin support.

High ceilings and designer furnishings give way to views over Pyrmont, curated for guests to enjoy personalised service and exclusive privileges. The Executive Lounge is open from 6:30am – 10:00pm every day and offers guests continental breakfast, afternoon tea and evening drinks and canapés. A self-serve area provides unlimited access to a selection of premium snacks and cold non-alcoholic drinks.

Evening canapés will be presented across a decadent grazing table, featuring appetisers personally designed by The Star Sydney's award-winning signature chefs – Chase Kojima, Sokyo; Dany Karam, BLACK Bar & Grill; and Gabriele Taddeucci, Balla – with menus adapting seasonally to take advantage of premium local and specially-sourced ingredients.

Guests can enjoy a complimentary glass of sparkling NV Domaine Chandon Brut and an extensive selection of hand-picked beverages, including Australian and New Zealand wine, local and imported beer and a custom-designed Executive Lounge cocktail.

Dino Mezzatesta, Chief Operating Officer – Hotels, Retail and Food & Beverage, The Star Sydney commented on the new level of luxury The Executive Lounge delivers for VIP business and leisure travellers to Sydney.

“The Star Sydney is proud to welcome a new era of business luxury with The Executive Lounge. This space has been specially curated with the VIP in mind – from beautifully designed interiors, and functional meeting space, to the menus created by our signature chefs and of course, five-star service from the moment you walk in.

“Whether you are in Sydney to relax in style, work in comfort or meet in state-of-the-art facilities – The Executive Lounge will add a touch of indulgence to your next visit - we look forward to welcoming you to our new space,” said Mr Mezzatesta.

Guests of Astral Tower and Residences and The Darling are able to upgrade their accommodation package from $75 per person, while visitors are welcome from $55 per person/per day.

Built by Sissons Architects, with interiors designed by award-winning a+ design group, the launch of The Executive Lounge marks the next phase of redevelopment at The Star Sydney following Astral Tower & Residences' recent $130 million refurbishment.

In 2019, The Executive Lounge will see an expansive outdoor terrace added – opening the lounge into the vibrancy of Pyrmont.
